

Barbara Sierman

Barbara Sierman MA is digital preservation manager at the Research Department of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, National Library of the Netherlands. She studied Dutch literature and was library consultant at PICA (now OCLC). After years as an IT consultant at Cap Gemini, she joined the KB in 2005. She participated in several European projects like Planets, SCAPE and APARSEN. Barbara publishes regularly about various topics in digital preservation. One of the topics being audit and certification, where she was involved in the development of the related ISO standards like ISO 16363 Audit and Certification of Trustworthy Digital Repositories. She is a member of the IIPC Steering Committee and a board member of the Open Preservation Foundation.